Dear Russ:

Many thanks for your telephone call and note about [REDACTED]. We will keep this suggestion in mind in case we should have an appropriate vacancy. At the moment we do not have many open places for high ranking Army officers. We have quite a number on board and I am trying to build up efficiency and morale by making promotions from within the ranks wherever possible. [REDACTED] seems to have had an outstanding record and I am keeping the matter open in case we should find a place for him.

Please let me have any suggestions of this kind as they occur to you.

Sincerely,

Allen S. Dulles
